

Crittenden Estate Peninsula 2019 Pinot Noir The 2022 Halliday Wine Companion

This sits in the right place. It shows off lovely varietal aromas and flavours as much as the region. It's juicy and bright, works off a medium-bodied frame full of cherries and spiced strawberries. Tannins are soft and so too the acidity. A pinot for today.

Rating 93

Jane Faulkner