

Review By:
Tom Portet

CRITTENDEN ESTATE THE ZUMMA PINOT NOIR

"Wines made by the formidable Rollo Crittenden are all about the Burgundian ideal of restraint and elegance but with dashing power and concentration. Think cherries and berries all rolled up with silky cigar box tannins and taut focused length. It drinks really well right now but will reward those with enough patience to wait - which is probably not many of you."