

Crittenden Estate 2017 Cri de Coeur Chardonnay
Huon Hooke's The Real Review
92/100

Bright, light to mid-yellow colour; with attractive toast and subtle buttery nuances on the nose, white peach beneath. A trace of toffee; a little almond meal as it warmed in the glass. The palate is fine and tensioned with lean angularity and refreshing acidity. It's still very youthful for its three years, and promises to build with a little more cellaring.
