

Crittenden Estate 2018 Peninsula Pinot Gris
Huon Hooke's The Real Review
92/100

Light straw-yellow colour, with a subtle talcy aroma, a trace of yeastiness, some dried grass and dried floral notes, the palate medium-bodied and rounded, ample and slightly chewy in texture. Generous flavour undercut by frisky acidity. Nice wine. (Feb 2020)
