

Crittenden Estate 2019 Cri de Coeur Chardonnay
Huon Hooke's The Real Review
95/100

Lightish colour. Oatmeal, almond and cashew aromas, restrained and undeveloped. The palate is rich yet restrained, drying and firm from tannin, fine and tensioned, structurally suited as a food wine, because of its tannin backbone. There is intensity and length. It will fill out and build more complexity with more time, but it's already a glorious wine.
